SIERRA MADRE READY TO GREET PIONEER DAYS PARADE SATURDAY

Lee Shippey Writes On Politics

SEEMS TO ME some of the political boys are likely to draw offside penalties for jumping off before the starter's gun.

To this rank outsider it looks as if the 1964 Presidential race started the day after the votes were counted last November. Nixon, having lost by only a whisker, then seemed to have clear sailing for the 1964 nomination, but Rockefeller and Goldwater were hopefully standing by.

They gently let it be known they would be available, just in case, and hinted a successful candidate for Governor might have more appeal than a defeated candidate for President.

Powers, Shell and Knight immediately tried to stake out their claims for the Gubernatorial candidacy, assuming Nixon wanted none of it, but Nixon apparently saw wisdom in the "friendly" opinions of Rockefeller and Goldwater and read himself out of the 1964 Presidential race and into the Gubernatorial race, which made Knight sadly recall how he had been induced to run for senator when he wanted to run for Governor.

WELL, IT SURELY livens things up. But it seems to this admittedly ignorant observer that there could be such a thing as getting the voter bored with the 1964 campaign before it really starts.

A brilliant orator once told me tests had proved that the average mind cannot retain absorbed interest in any one subject for more than 40 minutes at a time, and I'm so naive as to believe the average citizen could sustain his enthusiasm far better through a six-month campaign than through a campaign of from two to four years.

OF COURSE you can never get professional politicians to agree to that. They want enthusiasm, plus money-raising, to run 12 months in every year. I have long been convinced that big campaign funds are the root of political evil—they put so many good men under obligations to those who give or raise money.

Away back in 1903 Teddy Roosevelt urged that the government pay certain essential expenses for all candidates and put strict limitations on what else they could spend, so that a political race would be like a footrace, each candidate would have an equal chance and the better man would have more opportunity to win.

For 60 years persons who dream of clean politics have urged variations of that, and slow old England actually has put a good deal of the plan into effect, but no American Congress has been patriotic enough to do so. I am happy to read that President Kennedy favors something of the sort.

IF I WERE dictator of America I would decree that partisanship should operate like baseball—each party would get its four-year term at bat, with every incentive to do the best it could in those four years, knowing that when the rival party took over it would do its utmost to make an even better score.

That would keep both parties from building up machines; it would make cheating of any kind so dangerous that few would dare engage in it, and it would enable everyone holding office to give most of his time and thought to the good of the country, instead of to voting the appropriations, obtaining the appointments and pleasing the contributors to insure his reelection.

Dedicated Woman's Dream

Marjorie Green Unit To Nursery School Formally Dedicated

The dream of a dedicated woman; planning and efforts of many mothers and fathers, were realized when Sierra Madre Community Nursery School was the scene last Saturday of the dedication of the "Marjorie Green Center" in Sierra Vista Park.

This center will now permit more families to be served by the nursery school and is especially designed for those children who reach their fifth birthday anniversary after Dec. 1 and cannot by law enter kindergarten.

In the words of John Torry, past president of the Nursery School Association and master of ceremonies, "To some, it is a delight to see this beautiful structure built by voluntary help.

"Others are thrilled that the long-sought extra facilities, for the training and enjoyment of small children in the community, is now a reality.

"Some can picture it as a fine addition to Sierra Vista Park, and a perfect meeting spot for community activities.

"Others may just stand in awe wondering how such an enthusiastic, determined group of mothers and fathers accomplished this task.

"The accomplished fact does bring a feeling of pride, and a sense of warm satisfaction to many citizens of this community, and should bring new happiness for more parents and more children for years to come."

MR. TORRY then introduced Councilman Ralph E. Rule, representing the city in the absence of Mayor W. Webster Vannier; Lawrence C. Bevington, city administrator; Mrs. Donald McAdam, president of the Sierra Madre Community Nursery School Association, and Harlan Pedersen, architect who designed the attractive structure and also a father-member of the association.

Mr. Torry also acknowledged the contributions of Frank Hoffman, general contractor; Harold Stalzer, assistant, John Kariotis, structural engineer; Robert Mannion, painting contractor Robert Talbott, electrical contractor; Ted Liepman, plumbing contractor, and Harry Dietrich, landscaping.

The coordinating staff consisting of Donald McAdam, Mrs, Gerald Marugg Jr., Mrs. Jeanne Dennis and Arthur Benedict Jr., also was recognized.

C. of C. Dinner Lauds Search, Rescue Team

29 Play In Hot Jazz Concert On Saturday

A post-parade feature of Saturday's main Pioneer Days event will be the "Hot Jazz Concert" to be staged at Memorial Park, starting at 1 p.m. and in which 17 jazz musicians of the California Hoe Jazz Society, plus 12 banjo players, will participate.

This concert will start immediately after the Lions Pioneer Days Parade and will continue until 2:30 at least, possibly longer. Among the players will be musicians formerly with Tommy Dorsey's, Louis Armstrong's and other famous Dixieland bands.

Dinner

Sierra Madre, the "Little Foothill City of Livability," marched in review, progressively so, before 180 leading citizens at the Chamber of Commerce "This Is Sierra Madre Dinner" Monday night at the Woman's Clubhouse.

Arranged admirably by C. of C. President John H. Curtis, the highlight before a crowd that jammed the clubhouse, was dramatic presentation by Postaster Charles E. Louk of an illuminated scroll of appreciation to the famed Sierra Madre Search and Rescue Team, and which was received by Fred La, Lone, captain of the Mountain Men.

The scroll, containing the names of thousands of Sierra Madreans, will be framed without charge by the Richard Victor Co. at 11 Kersting Court and will be exhibited for several days in the First Western Bank lobby.

MEMBERS of the Search and Rescue team and their wives were seated at a center table and the address of Postmaster Louk in presenting the scroll was marked by thunderous applause. The postmaster detailed the heroic work of the team, then had each rise as Capt. La Lone introduced them and their wives.

Another highlight was the postmaster's previous address, in which he humorously referred to his own experiences, ribbed Toastmaster Curtis, told of the new $120,000 Post Office Building soon to be occupied on S. Baldwin and praised this city's postal employes.

AMONG OTHER features were remarks by Charles E.

Parade

Sierra Madre opened a booming Lions Club-sponsored Pioneer Days Week celebration with a memorable Chamber of Commerce dinner attended by 180 leading citizens Monday night in Woman's Clubhouse, 270 W. Sierra Madre Blvd.

The three-day Pioneer Days proper, together with the Merchants Dollar Day sales, begin today, and meanwhile fun and frolic will reign supreme among residents of Sierra Madre, Hastings Ranch, The Villa-Oaks-Highland and Rosemead-Foothill areas, making this city a mecca of merriment.

There is the Kemsley Carnival which has pitched its tents on the city plot adjoining the Woman's Clubhouse, two performances nightly by the Sierra Madre Players, details about which will be found elsewhere in this newspaper, and finally the bigger and better Pioneers Day parade at 10 o'clock Saturday morning.

THERE WILL BE 13 BANDS, with Carol Washburn, the 1961 Rose Queen; innumerable floats and a multitude of horse riding aggregations. In all there will be 116 units in the procession.

The parade route is from the starting point at Mountain View and E. Sierra Madre Blvd., moving west along the boulevard to Lima, a distance one-fourth of a mile longer than in previous years. Reviewing stand will be in front of Ripples at Hermosa and W. Sierra Madre Blvd.

Following the parade, the California Hot Jazz Society will stage a jazz concert, starting at 1 p.m. in Me-

Canyon Park Is Approved By Council

Bailey Canyon natural park for use of Sierra Madre people became an actuality Tuesday night when City Council approved purchase of 3.2 acres of land there offered months ago by Paul N. Carter.

The purchase was made possible largely through the efforts of Mrs. Lester R. (Margaret) Anthony, chairman of the Parks and Recreation Commission, who through the months mobilized public opinion in its behalf.

Mr. Carter at first offered the plot for $35,000. A subsequent city appraisal put a $25,400 tab on the property, largely of virgin growth, and this price held at Tuesday night's session. Mr. Carter, interested in seeing the park established, has accepted a kindly condemnation suit to be brought by the city in its acquiring the land.

IT WAS POINTED OUT by Deputy Administrator Tom Butch, in the absence of City Administration Lawrence C. Bevington, that the new park embarks more or less directly into 17 acres of other city land to the north.

Bell To Open Hallowe'en Festivities

Clanging of the bell atop the Sierra Madre Fire Department's antique engine will signal the start of the town's 1961 Hallowe'en Parade at 7 o'clock Hallowe'en night, Oct. 31.

Starting from Kersting Square, the youthful "ghosts and goblins" will march down Sierra Madre Blvd. to Auburn where they will swing north, culminating their short excursion at the Sierrra Madre Elementary School.

All Sierra Madre youngsters are eligible to enter the parade and compete for the prizes which will be given to the best costumed participants. Recreation Department Director Tom Butch, in charge of the events, requests that all participants gather one hour before the start of the parade.

PRIZES WILL BE awarded to the owners of the top three costumes represented by the grade levels which range from the first through the eighth. Members of the Kiwanis Club will judge the contest when the children prance across the auditorium stage.

Besides the Hallowe'en Parade, the youngsters also

Sierra Madre Hardware Is 75 Years Old

The Sierra Madre Hardware Company, founded in 1886, and the oldest business house in this city, is celebrating its 75th anniversary or Golden Jubilee this year. For many years now, it has been operated by Thomas M. Schwartz, Emile E. Smith and Sidney L. Westfall, who in addition to conducting an establishment worthy of a metropolitan city, have taken leading roles in the city's political, civic and business enterprise.

The store was founded in 1886 by C. M. Clark and W. S. Andrews. W. S. Hull was later a third member and as time ensued and changes occurred in partnership, Fred Griebenov and C. B. Kluck were included.

FIRST STORE was opened by Messers. Clark and Andrews in a building at Central and Lima Sts. — the

Golden Opportunity

Merchants Offering Galaxy of Bargains

Sierra Madre merchants, complementing the Pioneer Days celebration Thursday, Friday and Saturday, will stage a three-day galaxy of genuine bargains, that buyers should take advantage of.

Ralph G. Hurwit of Ralph's Shoe Store, 41 N. Baldwin, chairman of the merchants committee of the Chamber of Commerce, in charge of the sale, says that, "The merchants of Sierra Madre are doing all in their power to keep this a close-knit community by conducting, at regular intervals, sales, bargain sales and dollar days.

"The people of Sierra Madre can save themselves money by patronizing their own local merchants.

"This weekend, Oct. 26-28, is Pioneer Bargain Days. Come downtown and enjoy the carnival, the parade and the bargains offered by our merchants. You can't miss having a good time through the celebration sponsored by the Lions Club and the sales conducted by our merchants.

"It's going to be one of the biggest celebrations Sierra Madre ever had; likewise, it'll prove a chapter of opportunity for buyers in our stores."

Chest Total Hits $3,100

The thermometer in Kersting Square telling the public the progress of the Community Chest campaign yesterday touched $3,100. The goal is $14,000.

Some 160 replies pledged to give through AID. About 175 Chest workers are canvassing door-to-door.

Mayor and Wife End Vacation Trip

Mayor W. Webster Vannier and Mrs. Vannier of 131 W. Bonita, have returned from a two week's vacation trip to Zion, Bryce National Parks and the north and south rims of Grand Canyon.

They spent five days in the latter spot, the mayor reporting the weather there was much cooler than it was in Sierra Madre at the time. Mayor and Mrs. Vannier made the trip by motor.

Death Calls City Fireman J. K. Crook

Seized suddenly with a cerebral hemmorhage while at his home, 391 N. Mountain Trail, Sunday afternoon, James Kenneth Crook, 37, ambulanced to St. Luke Hospital, died there Monday.

Mr. Crook, a member of the Sierra Madre Volunteer Fire Department, experienced the spell unexpectedly. He was hurried to the hos-

Winners In Hallow'en Window Painting Contest

More than 100 paint brushes and their children invaded 38 Sierra Madre Merchants' Windows. The outcome was orange, black, white, red and blue on 38 wonderfully decorated windows. The colors were gay and the scenes wild in this the Annual Merchants' Hallowe'en Window Painting Contest held last Saturday.

The contest was sponsored jointly by the Sierra Madre Recreation Department and Sierra Madre Chamber of Commerce under supervision of Tom Butch, recreation director.

AFTER THREE or four tours of the painted windows, the judges—Joe Delgatto, Ben Miller and Nash Cavan — reached the final decision of:

First Place Prize—(Fashionette Beauty Shop) painted by David Cason, Jim Schaefer, Chris Carlson and Bob Fraade.

Second Place Prize—(Youngland) painted by Jaice Aisawa and Sue Wallace.

Third Place Prize—(tie between Don Jackson's Men's Store) painted by Ricky Meeker, Bobby Robertson and Craig Neves, and (Acme Juicer Mfg. Co) painted by Donna Hillman.

Honorable Mention — (Arnold's Hardware) painted by Janie Sparer and Linda Olney; (Carl Hansen Ford) painted by Pamela Termath, Mary Jo Sweeney and Margaret McGoldrick, and (Sierra Madre Hardware) painted by Frank Fisher and Bobby Fisher.

THE RECREATION DEPARTMENT and Chamber of Commerce wish to extend their sincere thanks to Sierra Madre merchants for granting permission to paint their windows; to the judges for their able assistants, and last, but not least—to all the participants who did a fine job of bringing the Hallowe'en spirit to the city of Sierra Madre.

SIERRA MADRE presents its honor roll to members of the Search and Rescue Team during the C. of C. dinner Monday night. From the left: Postmaster Charles E. Louk who presented the scroll containing names of thousands of Sierra Madreans; Capt. Fred La Lone of the Search and Rescue Team, and John H. Curtin, Chamber of Commerce president.

Shepherd of Hills Will Observe 4th Anniversary With 2 Special Services

Shepherd of the Hills Lutheran Church will mark the fourth anniversary of its first worship with two special services and annual meeting of the congregation when building plans will be the topic.

The special rites will be Sunday, Oct. 29, when Reformation Sunday will be celebrated, and Sunday, Nov. 5, when Holy Communion will be offered and newly-elected church councilmen will be installed.

The youngest congregation in this community, Shepherd of the Hills held its first worship on Reformatoon Sunday, Oct. 27, 1957, in the upper room of the Sierra Madre Woman's Club, with Rev. Ray E. Hansen as pastor. The church was formally organized the following spring on May 11, 1958. Services presently are being held in the Sierra Madre Masonic Temple.

TWIN SERMON TOPICS have been chosen for the anniversary. For this Reformation Sunday, Oct. 29, Pastor Hansen will preach on "If the Bomb Drops," pointing out what Christianity has to say in the way of hope and guidance if such a disaster occurs here.

The next Sunday, Nov. 5, his message will be "If the Bomb Does Not Drop," emphasizing the best course of action in the event life continues. Special anthems will be sung by the choir directed by Charles E. Markham.

A POTLUCK DINNER at 7 p.m. will precede the annual business meeting which begins at 8 p.m. Friday, Nov. 3. The nominating committee will name four men for council positions.

They are Ernest W. Nelson, now serving an unexpired term, and Frank M. Mosier, both of Sierra Madre; Donald W. Baisch of Arcadia, and John T. Distad of Temple City.

Retiring councilmen who are completing their terms are President Herbert I. Chambers of Arcadia, Vice President Ernest A. Eckstein of Hastings Ranch, and John C. Horn of Arcadia.

Building plans are now being prepared by Architect Robert R. Inslee of the Los Angeles firm of Orr, Strange, Inslee and Senefield. The congregation expects to erect the first buildings in 1962 on its site at the northwest intersection of Foothill Blvd. and Santa Anita Ave. in Arcadia.

Churchmen View Two Color Films

Men of the Sierra Madre Methodist Church enjoyed a treat Monday night when the Union Pacific Railroad presented two color films, "Painted Canyons" and "Last of the Giants," in Parish House.

Dessert was served by the Miriam Circle under chairmanship of Jeanne Lindman. George Johnson is president of the Methodist Men.

Group Will Aid At 'Coffee Hour'

Ray and Wanda Schackelford and Howard and Bernice Ashead head up the "Coffee House" fellowship committee at the Sierra Madre Methodist Church, beginning Sunday, Nov. 5.

This group takes over social facets of church life each month. The "Coffee Hour" also provides a "lift" to those who teach, sing in the choir, and serve the church in some way throughout both worship services.

New Statement of Faith To Be Used For First Time At Congregational Church

The Protestant Reformation will be observed at the Congregational Church this Sunday when the church will use the new Statement of Faith of the United Church of Christ, of which it is now a part, in its service of worship. Rev. George W. Lindsay, pastor, will preach on the theme "Children of the Covenant."

The Senior Choir, directed by Earle Anderson, which normally sings at the 11 o'clock service, will sing instead at 9:30. Their anthem will be Guonod's "Sanctus," with Helen Hawkins as soloist. Judith and Nathan Rundlett will sing a duet at both services.

The Junior Choir, directed by Doris Murphy, will sing Carrington's "A Song and a Prayer" at the 11 o'clock service.

TEACHERS WELCOME

The Education Department is happy to announce that Miss Joan Beinhauer, Miss Eileen Rogers, Mrs. Virginia Lighthizer, and Mrs. M. Clark have just recently joined the teaching staff.

Miss Beinhauer will assist in the primary department, Miss Rogers in the kindergarten, Virginia Lighthizer the 4th graders, and Mrs. M. Clark in the music program of the Juniors.

Dr. Steckel Talks About U. N. Crisis

Rabbi Charles W. Steckel announces that Sabbath Eve services at Temple Beth Israel on Friday night begin at 8:30 o'clock. Cantor Solomon Edelman will chant the prayers, accompanied at the organ by Mrs. Bernice Towner. Mr. and Mrs. Mark Schaefer of Sierra Madre are hosts for the Oneg Shabbat. The public is cordially invited to attend these services.

The Sabbath of Oct. 27-28 has been designated as United Nations Sabbath. To emphasize its importance as well as significance, members of the Youth Group will participate in and conduct the services.

DR. STECKEL summarizes the crisis of the United Nations as follows:

"Crises call out the true nature of a man. A man is what he proved to be in response to trouble. The alarm of a crisis will bring forth—we pray and hope—new powers within humanity.

"In the Chinese language the world crisis is written in two characters, the first meaning 'danger,' the second 'opportunity.' What a profound understanding of the United Nations we could have if we could convert the dangerous crisis into a great opportunity."

Reformation Festival For Lutherans

Pastor and members of Faith Lutheran Church, 835 Hastings Ranch Dr., will participate in the Foothill Zone Lutheran Reformation Festival which will be held next Sunday evening at 7 p.m. in Claremont Church, 233 W. Fifth St., Claremont. This service will be under the auspices of the Foothill Pastoral Conference of The Lutheran Church — Missouri Synod.

Dr. Jaroslav J. Pelikan Jr., one of the foremost Lutheran scholars in the United States, will speak on "Saints of the Reformation." At the age of 37, Dr. Pelikan, professor of historical theology at the University of Chicago, is a prolific author on religious subjects.

Music, in which all Lutheran churches of the Missouri Synod in East Los Angeles County are joining, will be provided by the joint choirs of the San Gabriel and Pomona Valley Churches and by the Los Angeles Lutheran High School Choir.

PARTICIPATING IN the pastoral procession will be the following clergymen from the western area of the San Gabriel Valley: Revs. Walter Fisher of Pasadena, Reinhold Schulz of Temple City, William Splitgerber of South San Gabriel, Walton Doering of Arcadia, and Martin Porath of Monrovia. Rev. Armin Hesse of Faith Lutheran will serve as one of the liturgists.

The architectural award-winning Claremont Church may be reached from either Highway 66 or the San Bernardino Freeway by way of Indian Hill Rd.

THE 10:30 A.M. SUNDAY worship service at Faith Lutheran will commemorate Luther's Reformation of the church and the birth of Protestantism. In this service the Rev. Armin Hesse will continue his series of sermons on "The Revelation of God's Predestination," and will speak on the theme "The Goal of God's Predestination."

To all non-members Faith Lutheran Church extends the invitation to become acquainted with the teachings and practices of the church through the Pastor's Adult Study Class. This class will begin on Thursday evening, Nov. 2, and will meet each Thursday evening from 8 to 9:30 o'clock. These study-discussion periods will be preparatory, but not obligatory to church membership, the pastor says.

Last Wednesday evening the building committee approved Architect Culver Heaton's blueprints for the new church sanctuary. Interested parties may view these after next Sunday's church service. Current plans are to begin construction on the southwest intersection of Sierra Madre Blvd. and Hastings Ranch Dr. around the first of the new year, according to Mr. Kenneth Bock, building committee chairman.

Social and Club Activities

IT WAS A HAPPY OCCASION last Saturday when the Sierra Madre Community Nursery Association formally dedicated the new Marjorie Green Center, an addition to the present institution in Sierra Vista Park. Here we glimpse Steve Fuhrman, representing the younger generation, using the school; John S. Torrey, former president of the association; Mrs. Marjorie Green, the school's first director and noted throughout the country for her pre-school educational abilities, and Mrs. Donald McAdam, the association president.

Ross Tyree Enplanes For Germany To Coordinate Jet Starfighter Output

Ross Tyree, of 155 West Bonita, Sierra Madre, chief project coordinator for Lockheed Aircraft Corporation in Burbank, enplaned by jet early this week on a business trip to Coblenz, Germany, and other European points. While there, he will be coordinating efforts of the Free World Countries in Lockheed F-104 Jet Starfighter production.

Mrs. Tyree is entertaining relatives from Las Vegas, Nev., during her husband's absence.

ROSS AND HIS WIFE, Jayne, are ways and means chairmen this year for the Sierra Madre-Sierra Mesa Schools' PTA. Ross plans to return from Europe in time to help put the finishing touches on the Sixth Annual Extravaganza to be held on Friday and Saturday nights, Dec. 1 and 2, at 8 p.m. in Sierra Madre School Auditorium.

Before leaving Sierra Madre he urged us to ask everyone to save one of the dates and plan to attend the show which Jayne insists will be the best ever!

Sierra Madre Boy On Anti-Sub Job

Gerald K. Godfrey, USN., son of Mrs. Wilma L. Godfrey of 501 E. Highland, Sierra Madre, participated in Operation "Sea Shell" off the West Coast of the United States and Canada while serving as a crew member of the anti-submarine warfare support aircraft carrier USS Bennington, operating out of San Diego.

The Bennington, flagship of an anti-submarine hunter-killer group, participated in the joint Canadian-American operations with 150 other ships.

'Ingathering Tea' Event For Today

The beautiful home of Mrs. Paul Barksdale d'Orr at 175 W. Carter will be the setting Thursday (today) for the annual "Ingathering Tea" of the Sierra Madre-Arcadia section of the National Needlework Guild of America.

Mrs. Bernard Tumilty is in charge of the tea table and pouring will be:

Mrs. Frank Marshall, president of the Pasadena Chapter; Mrs. A. M. Bonney, Mrs. Cora Entriken, Mrs. Adolph Gourdeau, Mrs. J. Baxter Jouvenat, Mrs. Frank Parks, Mrs. Edward Lowell and Mrs. Draper Phillips.

Receiving gifts will be Mrs. Jeanne Hicks, who will be assisted by Mrs. Frederick Neale, Mrs. Teramorz Young, Mrs. Ed-E. R. Herwig and Mrs. Ira Doak.

THEY'D LIKE TO RIDE on Sierra Madre's float in the Tournament of Roses Parade in Pasadena, come New Year's Day. To do so these girls and others must sell a requisite number of roses through which funds are raised to help defray the float expense. From the left: Mrs. Robert G. Forney, in charge of the float fund-raising group; and the Misses Donna Seaman and Cathy Koenig.

S.M. People Will Attend U.N. Dinner

Several Sierra Madre couples will attend the United Nations dinner Wednesday night at the Sheraton-Huntington in Pasadena and hear the address on the U. N. by Rabbi Edgar Magnin of the Wilshire Boulevard Temple. Rabbi Magnin is on the board of the United Nations Association.

Those from here who will attend include Mr. and Mrs. William (Margaret) Tweedie, Mr. and Mrs. Dan (Eloise) Parker, Mr. and Mrs. Leslie M. Chapman, Rev. and Mrs. George W. Lindsay, Dr. and Mrs. Wayne Morrison of the Highland-Oaks section; Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth (Mary) Moyer and Grant Raddon, president of the Sierra Madre Library Board.

Church Youth Will Conduct 'Labor Day'

Pilgrim Fellowship, the high school group at the Congregational Church, will observe this Saturday, Oct. 28 as "Workday for Christ."

Throughout the day, young people of the church will be available for chores for residents of the community. Yard work, window and woodwork washing, silver painting, dog and car washing, wood splitting, and minor repairing are among the jobs which the young people are prepared to tackle.

DONATIONS which they receive for this work will be used to support the special missionary projects of the group, including a medical center in Talas, Turkey, the Jasmin Cultural and Social Center in Guadalajara, Mexico, and work of the Migrant Ministery in Bakersfield.

Sierra Madreans desiring workers this Saturday may call Terry Barbour, EL 5-3012, or the Congregational Church office, EL 5-9992.

Mrs. Schweppe Is Back From Visit Through Midwest

Mrs. Cleo Schweppe, wife of Frederick Schweppe, plant superintendent at the Sierra Madre News, has returned to her home at 182 N. Lima, after a six weeks' visit with relatives and friends in Michigan, Wisconsin and Illinois.

Mrs. Schweppe first visited in Muskegon, Mich., attended a family reunion of the Baldwin clans at Shelby, and then spent a few days each at Ludington, Beulah, Traverse City and Sault Ste. Marie, Mich, also visiting then in Canada.

Returning to Ludington after three weeks in the Michigan country, she crossed Lake Michigan to Manatowac, Wis., visiting at Shawnee, Appleton, Milwaukee and Beloit, and from there traveling to Lake Forest, Glenview, Grayslake, Lyons and Chicago, Ill., enjoying, as she says, beautiful fall weather of Indian summer.

While in Michigan, she sent home a few gallons of maple syrup to each of her families here, purchased a lovely melodeon which is more than 200 years old, which still plays and which will be enjoyed by her musical grandchildren.

Storkland

Mrs. Ruth Irvine of 4198 Pleasant Lane, Sierra Madre, is the maternal grandparent of Michael Christopher Joanou, son of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Joanou of 2337 Port Rose, Duarte, born in Santa Teresita Hospital, Monrovia, on Oct. 18, and weighing 8 pounds.

The paternal grandparent is Mrs. Betty Joanou of 839 Boyston St., Pasadena. There are two other children, Dana Michael, 3½, and Stephen Todd Joanou, 2 years old.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Richard E. Hauck of 509 E. Laurel, Sierra Madre, a son, who on arrival at Sierra Madre Community Hospital on Oct. 18, weighed 9 pounds, 6 ounces, and who has been named Richard Nelson Hauck.

His paternal grandparent is Mrs. Emma Hauck of Sierra Madre, and his maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. R. N. Parks of Pasadena. There are three other children, all girls, Mary, 9; Diane, 7, and Susie, 5.

Mrs. Higgins Phi Epsilon Host Today

Pasadena Alumnae Chapter of Mu Phi Epsilon, national professional music sorority will meet at the home of Mrs. Harold Higgins, 155 N. Baldwin Ave., Sierra Madre, Thursday (today) at 10:30 a.m. A musical program will be given by members of Mu Nu chapter from the USC campus.

Plans will be outlined for the 58th Annual Founders' Day Banquet to be held at the Sheraton-West on Nov. 7 and for inspection by the National President Miss Rosalie Speciale of San Jose on Nov. 10, at a meeting in Pasadena.

Assisting Mrs. Higgins as co-hostesses will be Mrs. Curtis Schmidt of Sierra Madre and the Misses Marion Smale and Marguerite Van Horne of Pasadena.

THE WILLIAM CALDECOTT'S "Western Party" last Saturday night will be long remembered by their guests. No ordinary dinner-dance this! Caldecott youngsters, Pam and John, were responsible for the clever posters on display. Typical was one reading, "No guns in the cookhouse, signed Quick Draw McGraw."

Costumes covered the Western range: working cowhand, yellow vested Fancy Dan, Sheriff, Maverick, etc. Must mention Nita Bacon's dance hall costume with fetching garter holster. Without a doubt the most spectacular entrances were made by Nita David and Flo Barnes wearing beautiful fringed cowgirl outfits and riding a REAL black horse! Their entrance was preceded by their husbands, who arrived shootin' it up; and incidentally frightening the horse!!!

OVERHEARD the 'fast car set' making plans for a December trip to Las Vegas. Among them the Gordon Hydes with their new Alfa Romeo, Phil Shepherds in a Chrysler 300, John Hedricks, a Lincoln, Lewis Pages, (the name of their buggy escapes me), the Zinsmeyers who are awaiting a new Cadillac convertible, and the Blair Hydes will follow in their '57 Ford wagon!

ACAPULCO BOUND next week are the Phil Shepherds and Gordon Hydes. Lesley Shepherd, by the way, was honored on his birthday anniversary recently at a gay party given by Nita and Warren Bacon of Greenhill.

A BABY SHOWER this evening at the home of Elaine Dewees, will honor the pretty one-month-old blonde baby daughter of Mary and Bernard Robinson of Hastings Ranch Dr. They have named her Joanne Michelle; and she has a big brother, 7-year-old Owen.

Cohosting with Elaine are Shirley Ader and Irene Botkin. Invited guests are Marlene Segal, Ann Elfers, Mildred Wardlow, Doris Amber, Dorothy Garland, Ethel Littman, Betty Brown, Marge Mannschreck, Irma Sparer, Gloria Huth, Shirley Anderson, Bea MacDonald, Mildred Helsper, Bernice Miller, Ann Albee, Evelyn Shaw, Zella Pierce, and Margaret Ogle.

"HOLLYWOOD GREATS" will be the subject of Author Jane Ardmore's talk to Las Companeras members next Wednesday. They'll meet at the Westward Ho restaurant for cocktails at 11:30, followed by luncheon at 12:30. Mrs. Neal Rowley will preside, assisted by Mrs. James C. Wentz, program chairman.

BEATNIKS invaded the Ranch last Saturday night, or so it seemed, when the Hilltoppers gathered for their first dinner-dance of this season at the home of Dr. and Mrs. William Linden. The Warren Mildrums cohosted the clever costume party. Beatnik-garbed were Messrs. and Mmes. Carter Dennis, James Sullivan, Howard Moon, Richard Wagner, and Ward Hollenbeck. The latter winning the door prize — which happened to be a DOOR!

"THIS IS RONALD REAGAN, Mrs. Wenger," said the deep familiar voice over the phone. Thus began the most stimulating telephone conversation of my week with a man I consider to be one of the most personable men in Hollywood, plus one of the most dedicated disciples of Americanism.

He expressed regret that he would be unable to address the November meeting of the East Pasadena-Sierra Madre Federated Republican Women. However, he WILL make every effort to do so in the spring. He has been on such an extensive cross country speaking trip it fairly made my head swim. He told me of Freedom meetings he addressed in South Carolina, Georgia, Louisiana, Illinois, Texas, etc. And after filling present film commitments he will head for Oregon and Washington, speaking in many cities during November and December.

"Wow, you sound like a political candidate; are you?" I asked hopefully, thinking how electable he would be. "No," he laughed. "But I'm a former Liberal who has seen the light and I guess that's why I'm so anxious for every opportunity to tell people about our wonderful country and about the Free Enterprise system that made it great; and now particularly the danger we face."

God bless you, Ronald Reagan, and we'll look forward to meeting you next spring!

REPUBLICAN WOMEN will want to mark their calendars now for the Nov. 15 meeting, (previously announced date of Nov. 1, has changed to the 15th), at 10:15 a.m., Eatons restaurant. The program, which will be announced next week, and the business meeting, will precede the luncheon. Hope all those who turned out for the Charter Coffee of the East Pasadena-Sierra Madre Federated Republican Women will plan to attend Nov. 15, and bring a friend. More about this later.

Two City Heads In San Francisco

City Administrator Lawrence C. Bevington and City Atty. Charles R. Martin are in San Francisco attending the several day's meeting of members of the League of California Cities.

EUGENE FIELD PUPILS and other neighborhood children will have a double celebration Oct. 28, combining their annual Hallowe'en Parade with a fun-filled carnival. Hours will be from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. on th eplayground. The big day will start at 10 a.m. with a costume parade for all children. Mr. and Mrs. Paul Robertson are chairmen of the carnival. Mrs. Robert Adler is in charge of the room mothers who will staff the booths. Ticket sales are under the direction of Mrs. Calvin Mathieu. Mr. Robert Talmo is chairman of booth construction. Picture shows Brent Sandberg, Ann Robertson, Mrs. Paul C. Robertson and Carol Pankey, all set for fun.

Assistance League Will Hold Buffet Dance Dec. 9 Replacing Fashion Show

Mrs. Homer G. Murphy of 2041 Carolwood Dr., Santa Anita Highlands, president of the Arcadia Assistance League, announces the league will depart from the established custom of a fashion show this year and stage a buffet dance for their annual benefit.

"Holiday Preview" is the theme chosen for the show which will be held Saturday night, Dec. 9, in the Chandelier Room of Santa Anita Turf Club. Joe Moshay will provide the dance music.

MRS. R. E. BAUM, benefit chairman, announces that highlights will include drawing for the grand prize, a Persian lamb jacket with black diamond mink collar.

Another drawing will be held for an eight-foot white-flocked, fully-decorated Christmas tree. The tree will be mounted on a musical turntable and will be delivered to and set up in the home of the lucky winner.

Tickets on the tree may be purchased only at the benefit, but chances on the fur jacket are being sold throughout the area by members of the league under the direction of Mrs. Richard Godber.

Invitations to the "Holiday Preview" are expected to be in the mail during the first week of November, according to Mrs. Homer G. Murphy, president.

ASSISTING MRS. BAUM in planning the gala event are Mrs. F. Burnette Stratford, handling the program; Mrs. Byron Knoblauch, in charge of the invitations and reservations, and Mrs. Octavius Morgan, decorations chairman.

Proceeds from the benefit will be used to support the league's many philanthropies, including the Toy Loan at Maxson School in El Monte, the Golden Age Club of Arcadia and the library cart at Arcadia Methodist Hospital.

Kitty Hill Gets Collegiate Honor

Kitty Hill, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry O. Hill of 1540 Hyland Ave., in the Highland Oaks Area, has been pledged by the Gamma Beta Chapter of Alpha Phi at the University of California at Santa Barbara.

Well, it's sneaking up on me again this year and the pressure is starting to build up. Hallowe'en, that is.

I have to laugh, for every year my husband comes home early with a smile on his face and says, "I got the trick or treat candy for you."

What he doesn't understand, and I don't quite have the heart to disillusion him, is the age group that comes to our house is so advanced they are almost ready for grown-up things.

Their hands get bigger and the children are taller and taller. I think the younger generation has grown up without our realizing it.

Imagine what their reaction would be if I handed them suckers.

Horrors! I'd have my gate on the roof, if I had a gate. Now I'll have to surreptitiously sneak out and lay in a supply of something sophisticated enough for our young people.

WE HAVE a couple of people that I know of on the hill who are paying rent at the Huntington Memorial Hospital.

One is Mrs. Howard (Alice) Morgridge of Meyerloa Lane. I understand she is doing well after a disc operation. Hope she is up and about soon.

Mrs. H. C. (Helen) Tumilty also is recovering from surgery. Her problem was an angry appendix that resisted all forms of reason. She'll probably be home by the time this goes to press.

ALTHOUGH THE GROUP got together to play bridge at the home of Mrs. Lincoln Wilson last week, the talk kept drifting back to the December tea that the Villa Guild of the Rosemary Cottage is planning.

Many heads working together promise that it will be the coup of the coming holiday season. The women there to play bridge were Mmes. Ira Lackey, O. Kenneth Fuller, F. R. Anderson, Norman White, Joseph Mangan, Edwin Pyle and Edward Halperin.

MRS. JOHN FRICKE of Barhite recently entertained her bridge club at a luncheon. Her guests included Mmes. A. C. Ong, Robert Law, J. C. Chambers, Mario DeModeno, Jarvis Cox, Ralph Gray, Earl Clark, Howard Hotaling, Arthur Eggert, Kenneth Scott, Loring Dyer and Grant Otten.

THE BEN ROGERS had a novel birthday anniversary party the other evening. They celebrated the birthday anniversary of Miss Sid Schmidt, Mrs. Rogers' sister. The unusual part of the party was that Sid, or Madelaine, as you prefer, happens to be in Hawaii and attended only by virtue of trans-ocean wire service. Guests all called her during the course of the evening to tell her what a wonderful time they were having at the party.

The group included Mr. and Mrs. David Schnabel, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Schmitt, who were vacationing up here from the beach, and Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Paquette.

MR. AND MRS. KENNETH W. CHRISTIANSON of Sierra Madre Villa hosted a Mexican dinner party last Sunday evening to honor their houseguests, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Jones from Chicago. The Joneses arrived only that morning. Barbara and Peg are lifetime friends. Inasmuch as it was Mrs. Jones' birthday anniversary they contrived a beautiful pinata in the form of a peacock which was filled with goodies and birthday surprises.

Guest list included Mr. and Mrs. Earl Welch, Mr. and Mrs. Homer Murphy, Mr. and Mrs. William Baugh, Mr. and Mrs. Mathew Slavin, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hardison and Mr. and Mrs. Don Loynd.

Ranch Nursery School Planning 3-Year-Old Class

Vi Carmichael, Hastings Ranch Nursery School director, announces that due to many requests a new class for 3-year-olds will begin on Nov. 16. This class will be two days a week, Tuesday and Thursday, and will be filled first from the waiting list.

At present there are a few openings and anyone interested may call the school, ELgin 5-1298, for further information.

Theft of a 1958 automobile from its parking place in Kersting Court Tuesday evening was reported to police by its owner, W. H. Jordan of 92 W. Laurel. Mrs. Jordan had parked the car there.

Republican Club To Hear Lanterman

James E. Cross of Santa Anita Oaks, president of the Foothill Republican Club, will preside at the club's regular monthly meeting Wednesday, Nov. 1, at Vasa Temple, 2013 East Villa St., in Pasadena. A pot-luck dinner will be served at 6:30 p.m.

Assemblyman Frank Lanterman of La Canada, guest speaker, will be introduced by Program Chairman Frank Crowhurst. Mr. Wagner should have a good report on the results of the fund raising party and dance held Nov. 30 at the James Cross home in Santa Anita Oaks.

HOSTESS CHAIRMAN Mrs. John Blair, advises anyone interested in the November meeting to contact one of the hostesses, either Mrs. Eugene Bell at EL 5-7080, or Mrs. William Coulson at EL 5-7774.

Al Stearns, membership chairman at EL 5-2620, would welcome any inquiries concerning anyone wanting to join this group that includes the Foothill Area from Sierra Madre, Altadena, Arcadia (Upper) and Monrovia.

Come, View Our Parade, And Enjoy Our Bargains

This is a week of which Sierra Madre, its citizens and merchants, may well feel proud — a genuine, three-pronged wingding celebration.

The Chamber of Commerce "This Is Sierra Madre" dinner Monday night at the Woman's Clubhouse, proved an outstanding success, especially presentation of the Scroll, arranged by President John H. Curtis, to the Search and Rescue Team, and which was accepted by the leader of that famed organization of mountain men, Capt. Fred La Lone; and the honoring of the Postal Employes, preliminary to dedication of the new $120,000 Post Office Building, a gem of a structure, on S. Baldwin.

This was the highlight of the week's inaugural, preceded a week previously by opening of the new Headliner Coffee Shop, on W. Sierra Madre Blvd., adjoining the First Western Bank.

NOW COME the other two events which will make this week memorable in the annals of this "Little Foothill City of Livability."

They are the three-day Pioneer Days celebration, accompanied by the Sierra Madre merchants Autumnal Dollar Days, in which unexcelled bargains are offered purchasers.

The once-a-year Pioneer Days celebration has come to be a stellar attraction in Southern California and especially in the San Gabriel Valley, endowing the area with a carnival spirit — a time to let off steam and to enjoy ourselves leisurely, culminating with the bangup Western parade Saturday morning.

There is a genuineness to this parade, not present in other communities staging similar demonstrations, for Sierra Madre's procession has to it the validness of the Old West.

And may we say that this year's parade, arranged by the Lions Club, is going to be a whizbang with its bands, other musical organizations, floats, Western horsemen, comedy features — youth, gaiety, color and laughter — even old age can be gay for the moment.

SO, TO THOSE outside our domains the people and the merchants of Sierra Madre join the Lion Club in saying:

"Come to Sierra Madre this weekend, enjoy the Pioneer Days and still further, invest some of your dollars in the tiptop bargains which our merchants have arranged for your benefit during the Autumn Dollar Days."

You won't regret it and you'll have barrels of fun.

Through To The Light

There is a tremendousness of beauty in our world and Sierra Madre has its precious share of it, this despite the alarms of hot or cold wars.

We came down N. Baldwin from the hills on a recent night, and to the East, in a vast semi-circle of light and warmth, glowingly so, we viewed the vari-colored, neon-tinted lights of Monrovia and Arcadia, arching the star-studded night.

It caused us to think of the old adage that "without the night there can be no stars."

We saw the lights of the churches, with their night meetings, many of them for our youth — that they may walk rightfully in the light of the Lord.

WE SAW PEOPLE eating in our restaurants, savoring of foods that men, women and children of other lands, some behind the Iron and Bamboo Curtains of Communism, would have envied greatly and gazed on greedily.

We looked at the sheer beauty of the night, the stars in panoplied splendor shining brightly from God's own heart, and we wondered if God, in His just might, might still hover over America as a land of His favor — if we are still fortunate and favored in His light and His might.

And we wondered about the children in this little city of 10,000 inhabitants of the Sierra Madre foothills — how safe are they?; indeed, would they continue safe through the night.

WE COULD shut our eyes and vision the broad Pageant of America — of the Great Ones — Washington, Jefferson, Franklin, the Adams', Lincoln, the martyr; Lee, the Magnificent; Sherman and Grant the Magnanimous; Teddy Roosevelt and Woodrow Wilson, symbolizing the galaxy of strength and devotion to America.

Do we today retain that strength and devotion to our land?

Is this strength and this devotion our answer to the nuclear bomb rattling Khrushchev? If need be are we ready to die for our America?

We wonder!

THE STARS of the night — God's stars — gleam down on America.

Are we still God's people?

Are we looking up at those stars and figuratively, at least, touching them, the hem of God's eternal garment and are we making ready for a Crusade for Christianity that has been thrust upon us by the death-dealing, mind-destroying atheistic pagans?

Do we realize at last that a new Dark Ages has burst about us and that we must fight our way through to the light.

We hope so.

News From Sacramento . . .

'Golden States' Gold Not So Plentiful

By Henry C. MacArthur
(Special from Capitol News Service to Sierra Madre News)

SACRAMENTO — California, the "Golden State," was not so golden in 1960, according to the State Division of Mines and Geology, when it produced only 123,713 ounces of gold, worth $4,329,955.

Compare this with $81 million dollars worth of gold, at a lower price, back in 1852, and it's easy to see why the plaints of the gold miners echo from Sacramento to Washington, D.C., and back again.

The Division of Mines and Geology issues an annual report on mineral production, which for 1960 indicates all the mineral production in California including petroleum, amounted to $1,404,424,000. Thus, gold production is only a negligible part of the total.

The report also covers county by county production, but, in counties where there is only one producer, the figures are not given. Reason, the division says, is because the law does not allow it to disclose the production figures of any individual concern.

COUNTY FIGURES add up to 27,986 troy ounces, worth $979,980. But the state total figures are quoted at 123,713 troy ounces, valued at $4,329,955.

Asked to explain the disparity, W. B. Clark, in charge of the Sacramento office of the division, said the figures for Sacramento and Yuba counties were not included in the county total. Reason is that Yuba Consolidated is the only gold mining operator in the Yuba County and Natomas Company only operator in Sacramento County. These two dredging concerns, the division indicated, are the only two really large mining interests now working in the state.

The disparity in county and state figures, therefore, would indicate that these two concerns produced 95,727 troy ounces of gold worth $3,349,975.

COUNTY FIGURES tell a somewhat doleful story of glories long gone. Tuolumne County, on the Mother Lode, came up with only 14 troy ounces of gold in 1960. Neighboring Calaveras was not much better, with 30 ounces. Nevada County, once the location of the biggest gold mines in the nation, produced 1,448 ounces. Placer County had 140 ounces, and El Dorado production wasn't even mentioned in terms of troy ounces.

In all the county figures, Sierra showed up best, with 16,528 troy ounces, while Siskiyou was second with 7,881. Butte County, once a large gold producer, had only 57 ounces.

Thus, outside of the two big producers, the gold mining industry in California has come upon evil days, which have been here for several years, and which no doubt will continue unless the price of gold is increased from the present $35 per troy ounce allocated by the Congress.

MOTHER LODE interests are engaging in a campaign, and have been for some time, to convince Congress that the price increase is necessary to revive the industry. On the other hand, Eastern financial interests are just as eager to maintain the status quo price of $35 per ounce, to avoid inflation, or so they claim.

Apparently, there's as much gold in the Sierra as has been taken out. Revival of the industry during the depression days resulted in a production of $50 million dollars worth of the commodity in 1939.

Our Peace Corps Worries Khrushchev

By Robert G. Spivack
WASHINGTON

THE PEACE CORPS — The idea of a U.S. Peace Corps apparently is disturbing the peace in the Kremlin.

Soviet propagandists have shown alarm about the corps ever since the idea was first suggested. In recent weeks their frenzy has reached a high pitch. Broadcasts from Moscow and other Communist centers have grown increasingly fierce. The young men and women in the corps are not idealists, but undercover spies. The whole project is a new cloak for "imperialism." As early as last spring there were reports from Africa that the Americans who came there would be "slumming."

It is with this background in mind that we should examine the flurry of excitement that has been the outgrowth of Margery Michelmore's vivid, perhaps too vivid, description of conditions in Nigeria.

Her indiscretion, of course, was to write on a postcard her impressions. After all she was not in the United States where personal privacy in the mails is regarded as something sacred. However, no one has denied the accuracy of Miss Michelmore's report.

The Nigerian students who took part in the "demonstration" saw no inconsistency in professing opposition to colonial repression while insisting that Miss Michelmore's evidently unpopular viewpoint should be suppressed.

But it is too much to expect democratic attitudes to develop overnight in any land that is just acquiring an independent status. Look at Ghana where Nkrumah professes a faith in freedom and jails his political opponents. Democratic, parliamentary government does not come about in 24 hours and we would be deceiving ourselves to think otherwise.

IN THE WORDS of Fiorello LaGuardia what we need is "patience and fortitude."

WHEN YOU HAVE an aggressive opposition, as the Communists are in Africa and other undeveloped continents, the deliberate distortion of American intentions should come as no surprise. They will seize upon and render out of recognizable proportions every episode no matter how trivial and let it be noted that Miss Michelmore's indiscretion was quite trivial.

After all the U.S. Peace Corps is a threat. There will be more demonstrations against it, probably as "spontaneous" as those Japanese student riots organized against President Eisenhowers' planned visit to Tokyo, or Khrushchev's "indignation" at discovery of the U-2 over Russia.

HOW IS THE Peace Corps a "threat"?

The Peace Corps is a threat because it helps to destroy the Soviet myth that the overseas American is only a Central Intelligence agent, plotting to overthrow the local regime if it is oriented in the direction of social reform.

The Peace Corps is a threat because it denies that the Communists have any copyright on the word "peace." Their fury is exceptional now because Khrushchev has made them look silly, with his nuclear testing and brandishing of super-megaton weapons.

But worst of all, the Peace Corps is a threat because our craftsmen and teachers hope to help Nigeria and the other states to acquire the knowledge and skills that will make them capable of enjoying the fruits of freedom. We are asking nothing in return — no mineral rights as the Belgians seek to preserve in Katanga, no white supremacy as exists in South Africa, and no special trade arrangements.

Nor do we insist that they must establish an economic order that is patterned after ours, nor demand their allegiance if war should develop. And the Peace Corps does not even seek military bases.

THIS IS A revolutionary development. Trying to explain away this startling American idea is what disturbs the peace of the Kremlin.

After all what happens if the Peace Corpsman does not resemble the "Ugly American"? Suppose his slogan is "Have no gun, will travel"? How will such behavior square with the picture the Soviets seek to paint of us?

Those who think the Peace Corps idea must be discarded because of the Nigerian affair are missing the whole point. What it really demonstrates is that the Corpsmen are making such a good impression in Africa that the opposition must seize upon such trivia as Miss Michelmore's postcard to try to make their point.

Those who have been upset by this incident and say "Yankee come home" are not making any more of a contribution to creating a better world than those who say, "Yankee, go home."

OUT OF THE COBWEBS

37 YEARS AGO THIS WEEK, Nov. 7, 1924 — The play which is being rehearsed under the direction of Howard McGregor for presentation at the Woman's Club during the Episcopal Church bazaar on Nov. 20 and 21, gives promise of being one of the most mirth-producing entertainments ever given on a Sierra Madre stage. Entitled "Mrs. Bumpstead-Leigh," the cast includes Mrs. Cicely Allen, J. N. Hawks, Miss Edith Blumer, Mrs. Edward Yerxa, Mrs. Frank Findlayson, Miss Mattie Selley, Jack Buchan, Hall Perry, Miss Viola Fennel, Paul Colburn and H. E. Long.

Opening of the new Wistaria Tea Room at 78 W. Central has been set for next Tuesday, Nov. 11, by Mrs. Blanche Muskrath and Mrs. Eva Holbert, proprietors. For the opening day the Wistaria will offer a special chicken dinner at 75 cents.

19 YEARS AGO THIS WEEK, Nov. 5, 1942 — William Schwartz who recently resigned his position as assistant city engineer, has accepted an engineering job with the government. He passed through here this week for an unknown destination where he is being sent to help lay out a new flying field.

With more than 60 air raid wardens participating, the bi-monthly practice air raid drill of the Sierra Madre Civil Defense Corps was held Monday night and some of the things that happened were not in the manual. Two volunteer firemen, Joseph Hutak and J. Milton Steinberger, received minor injuries when a high pressure hose they were using flung them to the ground. Both were able to be about the next day but they became the first casualties who were not playing "possum."

11 YEARS AGO THIS WEEK, Nov. 9, 1950 — Merchants began digging into their pockets at this week's Chamber of Commerce meeting to give Sierra Madreans their annual Christmas pres- P. E. Depot into an old-fashioned winter Christmas scene. Sunday, Dec. 10 was set for the all-work day for the transformation. Manuel de la Torre, Sierra Madre builder and contractor, and Jack Moffett, representing the E. K. Wood Lumber Company, made tentative estimates of the cost of the program. Contractor Harold Speer who for the past three years has headed the committee on construction, will again give much time and effort to the project.

6 YEARS AGO THIS WEEK, Nov. 2, 1955 — David Sharp Buchan, one of the city's best-known and widely-loved residents, died Tuesday in Sierra Madre Hospital following a lingering illness. He was 70 years old and a native of Scotland. Mr. Buchan attended Heriot Wate College in Edinburgh. He came to the United States from Canada and had lived in Sierra Madre for 34 years. He and his brother were active in Sierra Madre social functions as singers and actors. Mr. Buchan who ent — the conversion of the lived at 150 S. Baldwin, is survived by his wife, Margaret; two sons, Andrew Roy and David Robert Buchan; a brother, John (Jack) Buchan, all of Sierra Madre, and a sister, Mrs. James Wylie of Edinburgh, Scotland.

Mrs. Shirley Lampert of 1170 Daveric has completed the ten-week course of bridge lessons for beginners which included Mrs. John Huber, Mrs. Edward Lowell, Mrs. R. Shister and Mrs. R. Schuck.

New Frontierisms

Seems the New Frontier is engrossed in all kinds of potent projects these days. One group has given orders for the Defense Department to stockpile feathers — all kinds of feathers (the good Lord only knows what for), while another group has been conducting experiments on "how much more milk a cow will give while she is watching television"; already they have found that murder mysteries will get a half gallon a day less milk than Lawrence Welk's Band. So you see it's only natural that we wonder why hog bristles are worth $15 a pound.

Letter to The Editor

Dear Editor:

Many thanks for your interest in civic matters, as shown by publishing my letter to the mayor. I am happy that you included the reply made by Mr. Bevington.

Action has been taken by the city at once to improve the situation, by a complete cleaning of the area.

Construction of a new curb to correct the situation is now under way.

Most of us are prone to complain, and tend to forget when action is taken.

I wish to compliment Mr. Bevington and the City of Sierra Madre for the fine job they have done in my behalf.

I hope that the citizens of Sierra Madre will be informed of the above action.

—T. C. LODGE,

Dear Editor:

I am a new subscriber to your lively newspaper and look forward to reading the local news every Thursday.

As a transplanted Altadenan and now a confirmed Sierra Madrean after six years of residence here, I find your Sierra Madre News keeps me all informed on local happenings.

I also find your editorials thought provoking and your dedication to the community commendable.

As a publisher of magazines and programs and a columnist for The Independent, Star-News, I take a particular interest in the Sierra Madre News.

Best wishes for your continued success.

Dear Editor:

The classified ads that ran in your paper for the last three weeks sure brought lucrative results for the VFW Ladies Auxiliary's Rummage Sale.

The ads asked for donations. The results were most satisfactory. Many new items were brought to the club for us to sell to benefit our charity fund.

We all say thanks to you for your cooperation in running publicity and pictures for both the VFW Post and Auxiliary. Without your help our special events would not be successful.

ChuckWagonBreakfast Is Scouts' Plan

Boy Scout Troop and Post 376, sponsored by the Episcopal Church of the Ascension, will serve their third annual chuck wagon breakfast at Sierra Madre Memorial Park on Saturday, Nov. 4, from 7 to 10 a.m. Tickets are available from troop members for 50 cents. If no eager beavers phone, call Rex Smith, ELgin 5-7846, or Keith Moses, ELgin 5-2891.

Due to the quality and quantity of the menu, attendance at the first two breakfasts staged by these Scouts exceeded expectations, and this year the attendance should be even better. As this is the one money-raising event of the year for Troop 376, the dads and Scouts are putting forth every effort to make it an outstanding financial success.

Keith Moses, Rex Smith, Doug Berkshire and the other Scouts of the troop and their dads will welcome all hungry customers.

W. F. Schmidt Passes Away

Following a lengthy illness, William F. Schmidt, 69, passed away at his home at 460 N. Canon Dr., last Sunday, Oct. 22. Mr. Schmidt, a Californian for 27 years and a Sierra Madre resident for 20 years, was machine foreman for the A. O. Smith Corp.

Originally from Wisconsin, he is survived by his wife, Lillian M. Schmidt of Sierra Madre; two daughters, Mrs. John Krutsch and Mrs. Elmer Sawitzky, each of Sierra Madre; a son, William F. Schmidt Jr., of Temple City, and a sister, Mrs. Anna Boelter of Appleton, Wis.; also by five grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

Services were at the Ripple Mortuary Chapel Wednesday at 2 p.m., with Rev. George W. Lindsay of the Congregational Church officiating. Interment was in Live Oak Cemetery.

Roy G. Farmer, proprietor of the Farmer Market at 440 Sturtevant, is in dry dock with a broken leg. Roy slipped and fell and will be incapacitated for some time.

Cookies and Ham Burglars' Booty

Some hungry person or persons invaded the home of Mr. and Mrs. Louis M. (Kathleen) Vaugen, 174 N. Mountain Trail, last week.

Evidently hunger was their sole motive for they stole only one canned ham and a bag of cookies.

Entrance was through an unlocked rear door while the Vangens were absent. And "Penny," the Vangen dog, met the situation "ingloriously." There wasn't a peep from "Penny," which leads police to believe that the intruders had a "speaking acquaintance" with "Penny."

Post Office Dedication In January

Dedication of Sierra Madre's new $120,000 Post Office Building on S. Baldwin will not occur until about Jan. 15.

Occupation of the new building and its operation is now scheduled for around Nov. 15 if no further delays are experienced.

These announcements are made by Postmaster Charles E. Louk and mean that while the dedication exercises scheduled for Nov. 9 are pushed ahead two months, the city's postal force will be operating in the new building in time for the Christmas trade.

The delays have been incurred in changes recommended by the building inspectors from San Francisco following a visit here last week. These changes in the building are now being effected.

ANOTHER SETBACK, however, has been incurred by the city's delay in opening up Suffolk Ave. at Baldwin. The Perlof property acquired by the city in its effort to create a new business street from S. Hermosa to S. Baldwin, culminating at the Post Office site, is still in escrow and completion of the deal is not expected now until after Nov. 9.

The Postal authorities want the S. Baldwin end of this street opened before accepting the building.

Another factor in dedication exercises delay is the desire of Postmaster Louk to have as the dedicatory speaker Raymond R. Holmquist, former Pasadena postmaster and now regional director of the California-Nevada-Pacific Region post offices, with headquarters at San Francisco, who will be available on that date. Director Holmquist's territory includes Hawaii and his itinerary calls for him to visit that new state shortly.

J. CARL BRAND of 227 W. Orange Grove, retired vice president of the Title Insurance Co., is chairman of the Sierra Madre committee arranging the dedication program.

Sergeant Embree, Wife Back From Four-Week Tour

Police Sgt. Hiram G. (Hi) Embree and his wife, Joy, of 432 Mariposa, have returned from a four-week's vacation spent in Arizona, Utah, Kansas, Iowa and New Mexico.

In Arizona, they visited a Hopi Indian village and saw the native dances, explained to them by an old acquaintance, a Hopi woman.

200 Attend Roberts West Cook Show

Some 200 persons attended the "Western Cookout" presented by Roberts Market and demonstrated by Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Baker Lloyd, last Thursday evening.

Lloyd told stories of the migration West to find new land, adventure and a new way of life, and related many historical incidents that occurred in San Gabriel Valley and Sierra Madre that make our community one of the richest and most fascinating in the lore of early California development.

MRS. LLOYD demonstrated and cookd her Forty-Niner roast on the iron pot barbecue while her famous Bean Pot cooked on another barbecue fire.

Fourteen baskets of assorted practical household items were given away by Roberts Market to those who held lucky tickets.

morial Park.

The Sierra Madre Float Association will be represented in the celebration with a parade entry and a display booth at the Lion's Carnival. Sierra Madre's Rose Float drawing of "Flower Vendors Around the World" will be unveiled at the carnival.

THE PRINCESSES who rode on Sierra Madre's float last New Year's Day will ride an entry in Saturday's parade.

The Sierra Madre Baseball Auxiliary invited all to "Score Beeg for Leetle League" at their Add-a-Dart booth at the carnival. The booth will be decorated in a Mexican theme honoring the early California pioneers. All proceeds from Add-a-Dart booth will go directly to support baseball activities for Sierra Madre boys.

Little Leagues' parade entry will be in Mexican motif. Sam Bennet and Jay Hersey, dressed as Mexican children, will lead the Hersey burro, "Peanuts." The latter has consented to don costume, too. They will be preceded by two Little Leaguers carrying a banner inscribed "Score Beeg For Little League."

POLICE CHIEF Gordon McMilan, with his force of 12 men, augmented by 10 special policemen, announces the following traffic arrangements:

There will be no parking on either side of Sierra Madre Blvd., from Mountain Trail to Lima from 9 a.m. until the parade ends.

There will be no parking at any time during the morning on E. Highland, from N. Baldwin through to Canon.

Likewise, the no parking holds during the same period on E. Montecito east to N. Mountain Trail and on N. Mountain Trail from Highland through to E. Sierra Madre Blvd.

There will be restricted parking on Lima, between Mariposa and W. Montecito.

Police will start posting these restricted areas Friday night.

SUPER-MAN

The real conquering hero today is the fellow who has conquered all his bad habits.

S.M. Players Will Present 'What A Cad'

"Step right this way, good folks! The curtain is about to rise."

For 25 cents you can hiss the villain and cheer the hero — also sigh with the heroine as the Sierra Madre Players join the Pioneer Days celebration in presenting their own corny version of a one-act "mello-drammer" entitled "Egad, What a Cad?". Performances both Friday and Saturday nights, Oct. 27 and 28 at 8 and 9 o'clock at the Woman's Clubhouse.

Cast includes Lynn McCord, John Welliver, Jack Spanos, Paul Stuart, Nancy Mulleavy, Barbara Dunnagan and Jane Buchan.

Council Meeting

It is expected that the new park, added to Sierra Vista and Memorial Parks, will be ready for public use in the early spring. It is the city's intention to simply clear the land of undergrowth and convert it into a picnic grounds.

Council, at the same time, clamped its hands more firmly on the municipal pocketbook in relation to projected funds for additional land for the Public Library.

AFTER LISTENING to a plea for the purchase which would total around $15,000, by Rev. George W. Lindsay of the Library Board, the city fathers spurred by "go slow" arguments by Councilmen Severin L. Sorensen, James F. Abernethy and Lorance W. Lisle, ordered a survey by an engineer and architect to determine present and future needs of the library in respect to land and additions.

The city attorney, represented by Atty. Robert Stevens in the absence of Atty. Charles R. Martin, was instructed to formulate an ordinance for an R-1 intermediate building zone of some 9,000 square feet to fit between the present 7,500 minimum and 12,000 to 15,000 maximum.

Atty. Noren Eaton, asked to comment on the United Nations anniversary, said "We should further appraise the U. N.'s value in the light of America's national interests."

C. of C. Dinner

Brown, assistant treasurer of Sierra Engineering Company which is completing a revamping of and addition to its Sierra Madre plant on E. Montecito which will double its production and personnel; Councilman Severin L. Sorensen who discussed "Sierra Madre Looks Ahead," and Mayor W. Webster Vannier.

A delightful musical program was played and sung by Frank Green's "Music For Everyone" aggregation of talented youngsters, and Sierra Madre found that it has in its midst the makings of a tiptop orchestra.

AMONG THOSE introduced were Barney Yunck of the Yunck Realty Co., and Bernard H. Stark, builder, partners in the series of $600,000 apartment houses now being erected at E. Grand View and N. Mountain Trail.

The invocation was by Rev. Clinton W. Swengel, minister of the Sierra Madre Methodist Church, and remarks also were made by Sierra Madre's first mayor, the venerable C. W. Jones. Col. Walter D. Thurber led the Pledge of Allegiance.

Nursery School

Green Center" was designed and constructed on 10,000 square feet of city land during this past summer by more than 75 father-members of the Sierra Madre Community Nursery School Association under well organized project assignments. Professional skill, time and effort of the members were donated.

The building fund for the cash expenditures came from two sources: (1) The generous cash gifts from individual citizens, clubs, churches, business houses, associate members, alumni and others in the community who responded to the "Buy a Brick" campaign last spring; and (2) the association's savings account which had been built for this purpose over the past five years from ways and means projects.

Mr. Torry introduced the outstanding Nursery School staff. Mrs. Jack R. B. Freeman is director; Mrs. Jeanne Dennis, secretary; and teachers, Mrs. Gerald Marug Jr., Mrs. Fred Tempes, Mrs. Ty Scoggins, Mrs. Kathryn Marugg and Mrs. Thomas Andrew Jr.

MR. TORRY paid tribute to Mrs. Marjorie Green, the school's first director "whose dedicated service and philosophy of pre-school education has brought international recognition to the City of Sierra Madre and a full satisfaction to community parents and children of yesterday, today and tomorrow. This unusual woman devoted her talent, effort, abundant enthusiasm and inspiration for the benefit of others, children first and parents second."

By authority of the Board of Trustees of the Sierra Madre Community Nursery School and the Parks and Recreation Commission of the city, Mr. Torry officially named the center the "Marjorie Green Center."

Mrs. Green, in her response, commented that this day "marks the culmination of many years of planning and hoping. Almost from the day we dedicated our first building, we knew we would have to expand our facilities

Because of Pioneer Day news space in today's paper is limited. Consequently, the story about the Nursery School Dedication will be continued in next week's News.

City Men To Hear Edison Engineer

Sierra Madre city employes and firemen on Friday at 7:30 p.m. will hear W. L. Dyer, Edison Company safety engineer, describe protective measures to take in working near lines and, of particular interest to fire fighters and policemen, how to turn off electricity in a burning house. He will also demonstrate various "hot-line" tools Edison linemen use.

Robert H. Green, Edison's manager here, says the session at City Hall Council Chambers will be of special interest to Sierra Madre Public Works employes.

Church News

Bethany Notes

STEVE SALISIAN, Christian businessman from Pasadena will be speaking to the combined Adult Department at Bethany Church of Sierra Madre at 9:30 a.m.

Steve Salisian

next Sunday. Mr. Salisian is widely known in this area for his excellent leadership as a member of the Pasadena Board of Education, of which he has served as chairman.

Friends of this area will be especially interested in hearing what Mr. Salisian has to say since Sierra Madre is now a part of the Pasadena School District. He speaks with authority and convincingly on the educational issues of the day. His remarks are dynamically delivered, and his ideas come from a background of Christian ethics and teachings of the word of God.

He is convinced that many of the problems faced by Americans today stem from the failure of our schools to provide the proper instruction in the moral and spiritual realm.

DR. ROBERT N. SCHAPER, Bethany Church pastor, urges all to take this opportunity to hear this outstanding Christian layman speak. Mr. Salisian will speak at a rally which will also see the appearance of more than 200 boys and girls in the Sunday School.

This rally has been entitled, "Prove Your Love Sunday" to culminate the month-long Sunday School contest Bethany has been engaged in with Mission Covenant of Pasadena.

John Kershaw, adult superintendent of the Sunday School, will preside and at the conclusion of the rally, Dr. Schaper will report on the progress of the new 7,500 foot education building and the need still existing to finish the structure.

BETHANY CHURCH and Mission Covenant Church enter the last week of their Sunday School contest with interest running higher than ever. Bethany leads by only 93 points. The score is Bethany: 4,745 and Mission Covenant: 4,652.

The attendance goal for this Sunday is 700 in Sunday School, which takes place at 9:30 a.m. An early worship service is held at 8:15 and the regular 11 a.m. service is held following the Sunday School hour. Dr. Schaper urges people in the community to take advantage of this new schedule and participate in worship at the church on the corner of Montecito and Baldwin.

ON FRIDAY, OCT. 27, a banquet will be held at Bethany Church in honor of K. M. John of India. He will be returning to India as a missionary after graduating from Fuller Seminary last June. The dinner begins at 6:45 p.m. and tickets may be obtained from Bill Ashe at EL 5-3874.

THE COLLEGE age Youth Fellowship meeting will meet this Sunday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Elwood Guyer at 3945 Blanche in Pasadena. This group, known as the Ambassadors Christian Endeavor Society meets every Sunday evening after the evening service at the home of one of their members. Sponsor of the group is Dr. Merton Alexander of Duarte and president is Merle Westover of Pasadena.

THE WORLD VISION Korean Orphan Choir will sing at the Pasadena Civic Auditorium on Oct. 30th at 7:30 p.m. This unique choir is made up of Christian youngsters direct from Korea and represent 14,000 other war orphans sponsored by World Vision in 156 orphanages in Korea.

You will not want to miss this unusual group sing thrilling folk songs, contemporary songs from their native Korea and hymns and other music for which they have learned English translations.

The choir will appear in some 40 cities throughout America during October, November and December. They will be appearing at the Christmas tree lighting at the White House, and will appear at Carnegie Hall as well as the Ed Sullivan Show in New York so this is an opportunity for you to see and hear this outstanding group of children.

Mistakes Of Past Theme Of Sermon

How to avoid the mistakes of the past will be brought out Sunday in all Christian Science churches. Highlighting the lesson-sermon entitled "Everlasting Punishment" is the golden text from Lamentations (3:39,40), "Wherefore doth a living man complain, a man for the punishment of his sins? Let us search and try our ways, and turn again to the Lord."

Matthew's Gospel records this parable of Christ Jesus to his disciples, "The Son of man is come to save that which was lost. How think ye? if a man have an hundred sheep, and one of them be gone astray, doth he not leave the ninety and nine, and goeth into the mountains, and seeketh that which is gone astray? . . . Even so it is not the will of your Father which is in heaven, that one of these little ones should perish" (18:11,12,14).

'Judaism In U.S.' Is Rabbi's Topic

Rabbi Camillus Angel will conduct the Sabbath Eve services at Temple Beth David of the San Gabriel Valley on Friday at 8:30 p.m., speaking on "Judaism In America."

The Temple Choir will participate, with Mrs. Charles Lich of 710 Encino Dr., Arcadia, at the organ.

'Source of Trouble' Is Pulpit Topic

"The Source of Trouble" is the lesson-sermon topic of Dr. Ethel Barnhart, minister of the Santa Anita Church of Religious Science, 226 W. Colorado Blvd., Arcadia, at the 11 o'clock worship service, Sunday morning.

The understanding of the "why" of trouble is the first step to freedom. Dr. Barnhart will discuss not only "The Source of Trouble," but also how the practical application of the principles of Religious Science changes everyday experiences.

The anthem of the Tower Choir will be "Now Let Every Tongue Adore Thee" by the Bach Chorale. The public is cordially invited. Child care is provided.

Sunday services include a Junior Church at 11 a.m. for children from pre-school through the 8th grade and meetings for high school and college youth at 7:30 p.m.

EVERY WEDNESDAY morning at 10:30 o'clock Rev. Rosalie Fowler conducts a healing meeting. Part of this hour is devoted to prayer for specific requests.

If you have a need, a letter addressed "Healing Ministry, Santa Anita Church of Religious Science, 226 W. Colorado Blvd.," will set in motion group prayer in your behalf.

J. K. Crook Dies

pital in an ambulance escorted by a police cruiser manned by Officer Douglas Tucker.

A machinist at the Sierra Engineering Company, Mr. Crok had been a Californian for six years and a Sierra Madre resident five years. Originally, he hailed from Washington, Pa. He was a World War II veteran.

SURVIVING are his wife, Beverly of Sierra Madre; two sons, William, 12, and David 7; his mother, Mrs. Annie I. Crook of Washington, Pa., and seven brothers and sisters in the East.

Services wil be Thursday (today) at 11 a.m. at the Ripple Chapel, Rev. George A. Lindsay of the Congregational Church, officiating. Interment will be in Forest Lawn Cemetery.

Hallowe'en Fete

will be treated to three free cartoons which have been donated by the Bethany Church. The comic films will be shown in the school auditorium.

Sierra Madre Hdwe.

latter was then named Markham St. Mr. Andrews withdrew from the parnership in 1892. Later John Graham became Mr. Clark's partner, but Mr. Clark because of illness sold his share in 1912 to C. W. Jones and W. S. Hull.

Mr. Jones of course, became Sierra Madre's first mayor and still is active in this city's affairs.

Later Griebenov and Kluck became identified with the company and still later it passed into the hands of Messrs. Schwartz, Smith and Westfall.

Tom Schwartz came into the company in March, 1946, Emile Smith in April, 1947, and Sidney Westfall as secretary-treasurer in 1950.

Successively, Sierra Madre Hardware was located where the Youngland Store now stands and now in the large establishment at W. Sierra Madre Blvd. and Kersting Court, where under the tutelage of Messrs. Schwartz, Smith and Westfall it has become not only a leading institution of its kind in Sierra Madre but throughout the Foothill area.
